(Issue 2, 10th May 2018)

Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, address, photographs, videos, email address, etc.). Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information. The processing of personal data is governed by the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the “GDPR”).

Who are we?

This Privacy Notice is provided to you by The 453 Churches (the Parochial Church Councils (PCC) of Barton-in-Fabis, Gotham, Kingston-on-Soar, Ratcliffe-on-Soar, and Thrumpton) which is the data controller for your data.

The Church of England is made up of a number of different organisations and officeholders who work together to deliver the Church’s mission in each community. The PCC works together with:

What is the lawful basis for processing your personal data?

Most of our data is processed because it is necessary for our legitimate interests, or the legitimate interests of a third party (such as another organisation in the Church of England). An example of this would be our safeguarding work to protect children and adults at risk. We will always take into account your interests, rights and freedoms.

Some of our processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. For example, we are required by the Church Representation Rules to administer and publish the Church Electoral Roll, and under Canon Law to announce forthcoming weddings by means of the publication of banns.

We may also process data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract. An example of this would be processing your data in connection with the hire of Church facilities.

We will also process your data in order to assist you in fulfilling your role in the Church including pastoral and administrative support or if processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.

Religious organisations are also permitted to process information about your religious beliefs to administer membership or contact details.

Where your information is used other than in accordance with one of these lawful bases, we will first obtain your consent to that use.

Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential. It will only be shared with third parties including other data controllers where it is necessary for the performance of the data controllers' tasks or where you first give us your prior consent. It is likely that we will need to share your data with:

- The appropriate bodies of the Church of England including the other data controllers;
- Our agents, servants and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to send out newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software; we currently use MailChimp and iKnow Church systems;

- Other clergy or lay persons nominated or licensed by the bishops of the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham to support the mission of the Church in our parish. For example, our clergy are supported by our rural dean and archdeacon, who may provide confidential mentoring and pastoral support. Assistant or temporary ministers, including curates, deacons, licensed lay ministers, commissioned lay ministers or persons with Bishop's Permissions may participate in our mission in support of our regular clergy;
- Other persons or organisations operating within the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham including, where relevant, the Diocesan Board of Education and Subsidiary Bodies;
- On occasion, other churches with which we are carrying out joint events or activities.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is current best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 7 years to support HMRC audits. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we may delete it when it is no longer needed.
